

THE FUTURE OF ESG IN FINANCIAL SERVICES

How Technology Will Transform ESG
Inclusion

The adoption and importance of ESG metrics have been accelerating across financial services. Today, more than 91% of S&P companies disclose some form of ESG reporting with the percentage rising each year, providing financial institutions with a wealth of data.

In this webinar, you'll learn how organizations can quickly access, onboard, and integrate ESG data into their front- and back-office workflows and easily build ESG workloads to assist in portfolio construction to regulatory reporting.
