ABOUT THIS EVENT

Join us on November 16th at 6pm for a special Boston user group meeting as a part of the BUILD.local series. Snowflake BUILD is our annual developer conference held on November 15th and 16th. Come to BUILD.local following the conference to meet up with your local community. BUILD.local brings together app developers, data scientists, and data engineers to connect and explore what and how to build. There will be dedicated time for attendee Q&A and networking during this meeting. Seats are limited, please register to participate!
